Alter This!

What happens when a lonely & unwanted library book, through no fault of its own, no longer has a life on the shelf? ART! Go green at the library this summer as we recycle damaged books into stunning works of art using fabric, paint, chalk, crayons, paper, scissors, glue, and your boundless imagination. We'll provide the snacks and supplies—you bring yourself and a friend.

Calling All Writers

(a.k.a. The Mysteries of Harris Burdick)

We need your help to solve the Mysteries of Harris Burdick, who years ago left 14 fantastical, funny, strange, spooky and unsettling drawings behind but never told the stories behind them. In fact, Mr. Burdick left and never returned... We'll provide the paper, writing utensils and snacks to get your creative juices flowing. Chris Van Allsburg's art provides the inspiration.
